Safeguarding

1. Safeguarding documents and templates

We are building up a bank of helpful documents relating to safeguarding at <https://groups.quaker.org.uk/groups/safe>. This will include a section where local and area meetings can share their documents. If your meeting has safeguarding related documents (e.g. policies or procedures relating to disclosure, complaints, good practice, recruitment) that might be useful to other meetings, please share by sending to safe@quaker.org.uk. As these will be shared on a publicly available web page please redact any meeting names and any contact details so that they are anonymised. Please send in Word (.doc) format if possible as this will make them easier for others to amend and adapt for local use.

safe@quaker.org.uk

Please send us your sample documents relating to safeguarding, conflict, complaints etc.

Governance

2. Financial queries for trustees and treasurers

Quaker Stewardship Committee has produced a short list of questions for trustees and treasurers to ask themselves to help protect their meetings from financial fraud – ‘Financial security queries for Meeting Trustees and Treasurers’. See the trustees page of the website at www.quaker.org.uk/trustees in the ‘Other useful documents’ section.

Quaker Week

4. Quaker Week 2018

29 September – 7 October 2018

This year’s theme is ‘Room for more’. As Quakers we offer a table rich with good things, but recognise it could be more inclusive. There is room for more at the table – how can we let people know that there’s a space for them? A recipe book full of ideas on how to explore this year’s theme will be posted direct to local meetings around the time of Yearly Meeting.

You can now book your speaker for Quaker Week. We can offer speakers on a wide range of subjects. It is worth thinking carefully about the topic, and whether it will encourage people from other parts of your community to attend.

Look out for the mailing and book your speaker.

Peace

6. Lobby the UK government to take part in the UN's upcoming conference on nuclear disarmament

From May 14–16, the UN General Assembly will hold a United Nations high-level international conference on nuclear disarmament.

The UK government has not yet decided whether or not it will attend. The UK has a responsibility to seize all opportunities to engage with the vast majority of member states on the agenda of nuclear disarmament. We are encouraging Friends to use our latest resource available at www.quaker.org.uk/nuclear-disarmament to lobby their MP or MSP about UK participation in the conference.

Please send Sahdya Darr an email at sahdyad@quaker.org.uk if you write to your MP or MSP.

Refugee Week

8. These Walls Must Fall – An event for Refugee Week

6–9pm, 23 June, The light, Friends House, London

An evening of spoken word, music and resistance!

We live in a society where border controls are expanding at an alarming rate. Whether it's in hospitals, schools, or on our streets, it is increasingly a dangerous time for people from migrant and refugee communities – or those perceived as being so.

As part of Refugee Week 2018 (18–24 June), we will be celebrating people's resistance to these injustices – and creating a space that strengthens our collective capacity to overcome fear and mistrust. Instead, we hope to transform our communities to become beacons of welcome and hospitality.

For more information about this event, visit our Facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/events/161878624525331/>

Tickets £5, concessions £3
