Sharing Ideas and Connecting People

All around Essex faith groups are organising social activities that help to build strong and healthy communities.

This event will share great examples and ideas for supporting people in the community using volunteering and social action. It will discover how faith groups support the things communities care about.

By bringing different faiths together we will celebrate our work, spark new ideas and question if faith groups can play a greater role in working collaboratively with other sectors.

- Hear about successful community projects led by faith groups
- Share your examples and knowledge
- Make new partnerships and collaborate
- Think about how Essex communities can best be supported
- Question what you can do next

Followed by an multifaith supper until 8.30pm.
